For town elections

Filing deadline is next Tuesday

Residents of the towns of Appomattox and Pamplin who wish to run in the May 1 election for the mayor and council seats in those jurisdictions must file certification forms with the county clerk's office and with the state Board of Elections by Tuesday, March 6.

Candidates must have their "declaration of candidacy" forms completed and filed in County Clerk Barbara Williams' office no later than 7 p.m. March 6.

In addition, a candidate must file a "certification of candidate qualification" form with the state Board of Elections by March 6.

"The form must be in Richmond, in the Board of Elections' office, by 5 p.m. March 6," comments County Clerk Barbara Williams. "Postmarks don't count. They must have the form."

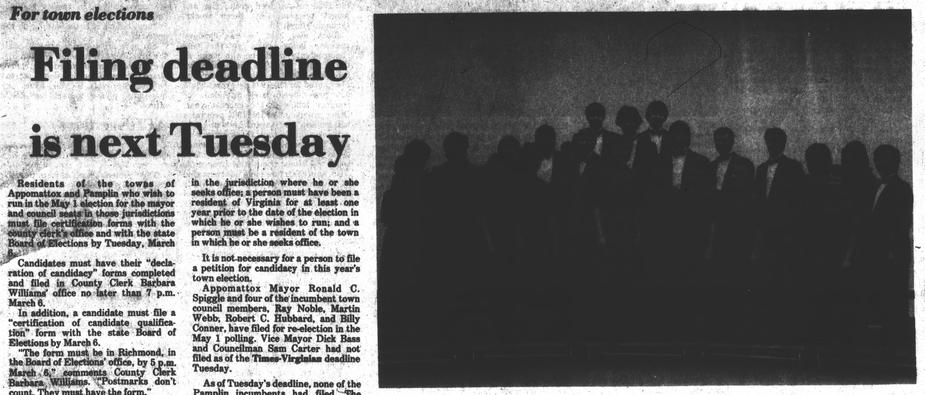
This is the first local election in which the candidacy-qualification certificates have been necessary.

The three candidates' qualifications are: a person must be qualified to vote in the jurisdiction where he or she seeks office; a person must have been a resident of Virginia for at least one year prior to the date of the election in which he or she wishes to run; and a person must be a resident of the town in which he or she seeks office.

It is not necessary for a person to file a petition for candidacy in this year's town election.

Appomattox Mayor Ronald C. Spiggle and four of the incumbent town council members, Ray Noble, Martin Webb, Robert C. Hubbard, and Billy Conner, have filed for re-election in the May 1 polling. Vice Mayor Dick Bass and Councilman Sam Carter had not filed as of the Times-Virginian deadline Tuesday.

As of Tuesday's deadline, none of the Pamplin incumbents had filed. The incumbents are Mayor Pat Harrison, and Councilmen Margaret Payne, Ralph Hamlett, T.C. Ligon, Russell Covington, Woodrow Williams, and Walter Lee.



Performers

ACHS CHORALE will be performing on March 4 for the morning worship service at the Washington Cathedral, Washington, D.C. The group of 27 singers will be singing acapella for 25 minutes under the direction of Steve Lawrence.

Chorale to perform

The Appomattox County High School Chorale will be singing on Sunday, March 4 at the Washington Cathedral, Washington, D.C.

The group of 27 singers, under the direction of Steve Lawrence, will be singing acapella for 25 minutes as the prelude to the morning worship service.

"It's quite an honor to have the privilege of singing at the Washington Cathedral," commented Lawrence. "Groups interested in performing there must contact the cathedral by letter requesting at time slot in which to perform. Not too many high schools get to perform at the cathedral due to the work involved in getting students to and from Washington for the event," said Lawrence.

The cathedral books singing groups a year in advance.

"Our group will tour Washington on Saturday before the performance on Sunday. I don't think our singers have any idea of the enormity of the cathedral or how many people will be listening," commented Lawrence. "However, I am confident the chorale will do a great job. We are looking forward to the trip," he concluded.

SMOKEY THE BEAR and forester Russell Clark show one of the 4 p.m. burning law signs which will be posted around Appomattox County. The law is effective March 1.

Burning law starts March 1

The outdoor burning law, which requires safety in burning brush, trash, and other debris, becomes effective March 1.

Russell P. Clark, chief forest warden, for the Virginia Division of Forestry, said the law, known sometimes as the 4 p.m. law and the brush burning law, actually applies to the burning of any materials in the outdoors.

The regulation, designed to reduce the number of escaped grass and forest fires, requires that burning of any materials or debris, can be done only between the hours of 4 p.m. and midnight if the fire is in or within 300 feet of forestland, brushland, or other inflammable material. The law is in effect from March 1 through May 15 of each year.

Clark also pointed out that this regulation is in addition to any air pollution control laws that exist and that are enforced by the Air Pollution Control Board.

Clark urges that any burning be done after 4 p.m. and that the fire be checked the next day to be sure all sparks are cold. Fires should not be left untended and every effort should be made to make all open fires safe.

Registration discussion set

Parents of students in the present sixth grade are invited to attend a discussion of the course offerings and registration procedures for the school year 1984-1985 to be held as follows:

Date and Time	Place
Thursday, March 8, at 10 a.m.	Auditorium, Appomattox Elementary School
Thursday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m.	Cafeteria, Appomattox Middle Sch.

The purposes of each of these meetings are to familiarize parents and students with the course offerings that will be available and to explain registration procedures for the school year 1984-1985.

Personnel from the schools and the school board office staff will be present to lead the discussion and to answer questions.

It is hoped that parents will be present for one of the meetings that has been scheduled.

As of this writing, Monday morning, Spring had not Sprung. Leastwise not on Martha Street. Cold, windy and unless the weatherman had on a false face, looked like snow. But maybe will warm up by the time you read this. Among other projects, have to get ready for baseball. Basketball will keep TV sets busy until the conference tournaments ar over. Seldom have we watched a better game on TV than the Carolina-Clemson engagement.

Each Sunday I clip a VIP birthday list coming up. Sunday, Jackie Gleason. Monday, Elizabeth Taylor. Then Dinah Shore, Ron Howard. Plus those in your family circle. Greetings.

Wednesday is the big day for those interested in Leap Year. February 29. Open the door and MARCH right in.

Keeping check on the construction and general facelifting at our court house square. Soon to be completed and there should be an unveiling or general visitation day. Went by to check it out one day last week and saw my friend, the able Circuit Court Judge for this area, Judge Jack Snoddy. One of the best.

Told me Sunday by a friend.....A teacher explained that there were sixty seconds in a minute. Home work project: How many seconds in a year? Little Henry quickly figured it out and raise his hand. Twelve, January 2, February 2, March 2, and on through Dec. 2. Clever.

And thanks for the loan of a quality national circulation magazine featuring articles on truffles, coral reefs, and Mayan ruins. And a long article on the BANJO. A detailed article, interesting enough except that midway through it says: "In the early 1800s someone added a fifth string, which drones as the instrument is played and the banjo was born." Heavens to Betsy, that "someone" was Joe Sweeney of APPOMATTOX. Mr. Joel Walker Sweeney.

Anytime is a good time to read. At least keep a good book handy, just in case. Currently I am reading Greenes History of the English people. On Volume X which will bring me up to King Henry VII.

Shane Abernathy, of Appomattox, continues to star on the championship Roanoke College basketball team.

Sorry to hear of the death of Ruskin Freer, veteran columnist for Lynchburg daily papers and Professor at Lynchburg College. He was 89. For 54 years he wrote of birds, trails, hiking and Virginia's mountains. I never had such a large audience, but I have been doing a weekly column since 1925.

Thanks for reading and seeya around.

Citizens' Journal

Ring rule and bossism?

By FRANCES ABBITT

The copy read like this....."A liberal reward will be given for a copy of the padded eligible list used at Pamplin precinct by the Judges of Election on November 2, 1915. We have only precinct in the county that need padded lists."

This notice was but one of the interesting "tid-bits" in the Citizens's Journal, dated Thursday, December 2, 1915.

The Citizen's Journal Volume 1 Number 1, had as its motto, "Down With Ring Rule and Bossism." The copy was stamped Sample Copy and loaned to the Times-Virginian by Mrs. W.W. Burke (Emily).

Published at Appomattox, James R. Meadow was listed as editor and manager. A single copy cost five cents and a subscription for a year was one dollar.

In his editorial, Meadows, had this to say....."We have no political ax to grind, because of the great Citizen's party and whether its influence be much or little depends entirely upon the measure of support given it; for a paper is more the child of its constituents than of those responsible for its weekly appearance. In other words, if patronage is liberal the result will be a bigger and better paper and the greater will be the credit to the party it represents."

The column went on to declare that everything published in the paper would always "remain clean and free from unseemly controversy and bickerings, but public officials will be duly critized when conditions warrant it."

The editorial continued...."we desire to state that we are not aiming to crowd the field of our esteemed contemporary the Times-Virginian whose editor has always dealt fairly with the people of this section and has made many sacrifices in the interest of the people of this county.....We are not entering the field as a local newspaper but as an advocate against that dreaded monster,"Ring-rule and bossism."

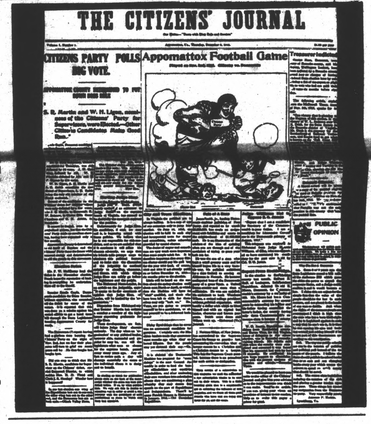
It seems, according to Mrs. Burke, that this issue was the one and only issue of the Citizen's Journal.

The headlines of the lead story on page one of this old paper read "Citizens Party Polls Big Vote." the kicker read, "Appomattox County Determined To Put Down Boss Rule." According to the news story S.R.Martin and W.H. Ligon, nominees of the Citizens' Party for Supervisors were elected and other Citizens candidates made a good run.

F.W. McKinney,Citizens candidate for the office of sheriff received 868 votes;Dr. D. Mott Robertson, Citizens's candidate for treasurer was only defeated by 58 votes. J.W.Cawthorn was defeated by 103 votes;W.C.Franklin defeated by 140 votes and R.P. Bryant by 273 votes.

With W.H.Ligon and S.R. Martin newly elected members of the board of supervisors, and L.E.Smith, the only old member of the board reelected, the governing board of the county was complete.

Several of the candidates on the Citizens ticket for district offices were only defeated by a few votes, J.E.Martin, in Stonewall;R.W.Bristow in Clover Hill; Oscar Cheatham and C.N. Abbitt in Southside.



Pamplin town tags due

1984 automobile and motorcycle tags for the Town of Pamplin will go on sale March 15, 1984. Tags must be purchased and displayed by April 15, 1984.

The Town office will be open 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. on Tuesdays and Friday only. Real estate and personal property taxes must be paid before tags can be purchased.

Expanded church news set

The Times-Virginian is seeking ways to promote activities and news of churches and religious organizations in and around Appomattox County.

Last week a letter explaining the planned Worship Page and an accompanying information sheet was mailed to all churches in this area. If, for any reason, your church did not receive a letter and information sheet, please call the Times-Virginian at 352-8215 and we will see that one is mailed promptly.

THE ROBERT E. LEE Chapter of the Society of American Foresters met Wednesday at the Country Fare Restaurant. The SAF, with about 21,000 members, is the national organization representing all segments of the forestry profession in the U.S., and seeks to advance the science, technology, education and practice of professional forestry in America and to use the knowledge and skills of the profession to benefit society. Shown at the meeting are (from left), Jim Vadas, of Chesapeake Corporation, chairman of the Robert E. Lee chapter of SAF; Jerry Foltz of Westvaco, secretary-treasurer of the Robert E. Lee Chapter; guest speaker Todd Helbrook, VPI graduate research assistant who recently completed a study of the effects of modern forestry practices on the wild turkey; and Dave Coffman of Westvaco, communications chairman for the Robert E. Lee chapter.
